FORCE OF RUSSIAN DRIVE UP

Muscovites Are Throwing Back Counter-Attacks and Advancing Steadily Against the Austrians.

170,000 MEN AND IMMENSE BOOTY CAPTURED

Battles Southeast of Lutsk and Northwest of Tarnovka Brought Further Successes to the Russian Arms—Petrograd Reports That Attempts of the Germans and Austrians to Take the Offensive on Many Sectors of the Long Front Were Repulsed—Contending Armies Are Inactive Around Verdun—Conflicting Statements Given of the Operations in Mesopotamia.

The forward drive of the Russian armies in Volynia, Galicia and Bukovina continues with apparently undiminished success. From the Pripiat marshes southward to Czernowitz the forces of General Brusiloff, according to reports from Petrograd, are throwing back counter-attacks and are advancing steadily against the Austro-Hungarian forces. The Russian armies in thirteen days, the Russians have captured almost 170,000 men and immense stores of war booty, says the Russian war office.

Battles southeast of Lutsk, between Koshin and Tarnovka, and northwest of Buczacz have increased the Russian successes to the Russian arms. In an action on the Pivchevka river, southeast of Lutsk, more than 8,000 men were captured after the attacking Russians had forced the river. The fighting continues northwest of Buczacz where the Germans are cooperating with the Austro-Hungarians but the Russians report the capture here thus far of six thousand men from the Teutonic allies.

Attempts of the Germans and Austrians to take the offensive on many sectors of the long front were repulsed, according to Petrograd. The Russian war office also chronicles the repulse of attacks in the western sector, eastward of Kovel, one of the objectives of the present Russian drive. Berlin reports the capture of 400 Russian soldiers.

MRS. LAMBERT TELLS OF DAUGHTER'S SUNNY DISPOSITION Took the Stand Yesterday in the Trial of William Orpet.

Waukegan, Ill., June 16.—Mrs. Frank Lambert, mother of Marian Lambert, the Lake Forest high school girl, whose body was found in a snow-drift in Helms' Woods last February, took the stand today in the trial of William Orpet, charged with the murder of the girl, a former sweetheart.

Dressed in deep mourning, Mrs. Lambert told in low tones of her daughter's sunny disposition which she retained until the day of her death. This testimony contradicted statements made on the witness stand by Miss Josephine Davis, Marian's most intimate friend, who had testified that the victim of the Helms' Woods tragedy was a very unhappy and several times threatened self-destruction.

Miss Davis had stated under oath that Marian wept on Feb. 6, at her birthday party, three days before her death, because Orpet had transferred his affections to another girl.

Mrs. Lambert asserted today that the tears were occasioned by the inability of another girl friend, Anne Paulson, to spend the night with her.

For many years, on birthdays, the girls spent the night with her, but Anne had to break the custom this time," Mrs. Lambert said.

The bill would create an executive council for mobilization of resources for national defense and permit use of army transports to carry commercial cargoes between the United States and its insular possessions. Provision is made for a $400 annuity to Mrs. Harriet Carroll, mother of the late Surgeon James Carroll, who discovered the yellow fever germ at the cost of his life. The bill probably will be taken up in the House for passage next week.

ADMINISTRATION NOT SWERVED BY THREATS. Determined to Continue Campaign Against Mexican Bandits.

Washington, June 16.—There were no indications here tonight that the administration's determination to continue the campaign against bandits in Mexico would be altered by General Trevino's reported threat to begin hostilities if the American troops move from their present positions in any section except toward the border.

General Pershing's orders authorize him to move in any direction he finds necessary for his purposes. In the absence of Secretary Baker, who is in St. Louis, no official word would be given whether these orders would be changed but the general impression prevailed that they would not be.

There is no fear of an immediate clash, however, for officials believe General Pershing would avoid taking any step that might lead to serious consequences until he had communicated with Washington. Late tonight the war department had no word from him or from any other source to confirm the report of General Trevino's action.

Recent troop movements in Chihuahua and Coahuila have led to the fear that the de facto commanders were preparing for some hostile move.

HUGHES WEARY FROM WEEK OF POLITICAL ACTIVITY Returned Without Knowledge of Party Peace Negotiations.

Washington, June 16.—Charles E. Hughes, weary from a week of strenuous political activity in New York, returned to his home here tonight for the week end. He retired immediately before the hearing of George W. Perkins' statement regarding peace negotiations between the republicans and the progressives.

This nominee's apparent desire to bring progressives and republicans into accord is understood to have been the theme of discussion in several conferences in New York between Mr. Hughes and some of the progressive leaders, notably Everett C. Coby of New York.

Mr. Hughes, who called at the Hughes headquarters there. To other callers the nominee has voiced the sentiment that the interests of both progressives and republicans demanded that differences should be subordinated and harmony restored before the actual work of the campaign is begun.

GOVERNOR HOLCOMB WOULD ACCEPT RENOMINATION Willing to Be Drafted, but Will Make No Canvass for the Honor.

Hartford, Conn., June 16.—In a recent speech at Stamford certain utterances made by Gov. Holcomb were construed by some as indicating that he would retire from public life at the end of his present term. Inquiry was made today by the Hartford Post-Tribune whether the governor intended to accept renomination.

The governor replied: "If the republicans convention renominates me I will accept for another term. As I have made today no announcement of intention, I will make no canvass for the nomination or do anything to secure the election of a single delegate."

Gov. Holcomb will leave the state June 23 for Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend the annual meeting of the governors of all the states in the Union. He will be absent ten days or so. In his absence Lieut. Gov. C. D. Wilson of Bridgeport will act as governor.

NOTE TO CARRANZA TO BE WITHHELD Until Details of the San Ignacio Raid Are Available.

Washington, June 16.—President Wilson today virtually completed his reply to General Carranza's note which substance was being written into the democratic platform at St. Louis.

The note, the body of which was put into final form at a conference today between President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, will not be sent, it is understood, until details of the San Ignacio raid are available. It contains no statement, it is said, that should arouse hostility unless General Carranza deliberately set upon bringing a clash with the United States. Firm language is employed in refusing the charges against Carranza of bad faith contained in the Carranza communication.

Half Million Strike Progressives to Ballots Ordered Return to the Fold

BY DELEGATES OF FOUR RAILROAD BROTHERHOODS. ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY GEO. W. PERKINS.

FOR NEW WAGE SCALE SERIES OF CONFERENCES

Neither the Managers Nor Leaders of the Brotherhoods Regard the Situation as Hopeless—Mediation is Intimated.

New York, June 16.—Though 500,000 strike ballots were ordered printed here today by the delegates of the four railroad brotherhoods which failed to reach agreement with the railroads in their demands for shorter hours and higher overtime pay, the delegates of the four brotherhoods are under way looking to a "restoration of the

"More Haste—Less Speed"

There was a time in business when it was deemed "clever" to get a customer's money quickly and hurry him away.

Business was conducted on the principle that a "customer's eyes were his market." If he made a mistake in selecting goods or was led into buying an inferior article there was no redress.

The man or woman of today who finds a purchase is not satisfactory, or as represented, has the purchase money refunded. The progressive merchant has found that it pays to give his customers time and the widest latitude in making selections. If he hurries them, or they make too hasty selection, his sales may not prove satisfactory.

Experience proves that the careful buyer is usually the worthwhile buyer, for careful people are usually successful people. They are the ones who know how to utilize their powers. They are the owners of well-managed homes and the supporters of the reliable newspaper which goes into those homes.

In Norwich and its environs The Bulletin goes into such homes. During the past week the following matter has appeared in The Bulletin's columns:

Leaders of the men and representatives of the railroads united in the declaration that while the situation is serious, it is not hopeless. The ballots are to be delivered tomorrow and will be taken by delegates to their homes for distribution to expedite the vote.

Both Sides Held Conferences. The railroad managers and the brotherhood leaders and delegates held secret day-long conferences. They discussed, it was learned, policies and methods for the conduct of the strike. The managers expected to follow the return of a strike vote.

Brotherhood Leaders Confident. The brotherhood leaders are confident that more than 95 per cent of the men will vote in favor of a general strike which, however, according to the wording of the ballot, cannot be called until all efforts toward an amicable adjustment of their differences have failed.

Settlement Through Mediation. Leaders of the railroads and the men were reluctant to issue official statements today touching on the probability of a compromise, but informal interviews indicated that both sides looked for a settlement through mediation, under the Newlands' act. The railroads, the employees believe, may drop the demand for a "double compensation" rule and consent to arbitrate the questions of hours and overtime.

May Compromise on Nine Hour Day. Rather than precipitate a general strike, brotherhood leaders intimated, the men might be satisfied with a nine hour day and time and a quarter overtime, instead of the eight hour day and time and a half for overtime demands.

Situation Not Hopeless. "The situation is not as hopeless as it may seem at first glance," said A. B. Garretson, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, who was spokesman for the men during the conference. "The public must not lose sight of the fact that no counter demand has been offered by the railroads to the demands of the men. It is impossible for the brotherhoods to take a retrograde stand until the railroads make their position clear. As the situation stands now the brotherhoods submitted their demands to the railroads and they were rejected."

Votes to be Canvassed Late in June. Most of the delegates will leave for their homes tomorrow night. Within a week the strike ballot will be in the hands of 500,000 brotherhood members and more than 50,000 other workers who are not members of the brotherhoods. The delegates expect to be canvassed late in June, after they will return here.

DEMOCRATS WRANGLE ON SUFFRAGE

National Convention Finished Its Work by Adopting Platform as Written by President Wilson

GOV. FERGUSON OF TEXAS LED SUFFRAGE FIGHT

The Administration Suffrage Plank Was Voted Into the Platform by a Ballot of 883 1/2 to 181 1/2 After Senator Walsh Had Told the Convention That President Wilson Considered It Vital to Party Success—While the Fight on Suffrage Was On a Thunder Storm Burst, Almost Drowning the Din on the Convention Floor—No Opposition Developed to the Plank on Americanism.

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—The democratic national convention finished its work today by adopting the party platform, exactly as approved by President Wilson and submitted by the resolutions committee, including the plank on Americanism and the favoring woman suffrage, but not until the harmony of its three days' session had been broken by a row over the suffrage plank.

Whatever your opinion may be, here you are confronted, as one of our famous leaders said, "with a conflict, not theory." The twenty-one states represent 91 votes in the electoral college. Every political party which has a chance of winning the presidency must take a position on suffrage or other. It becomes a simple question of whether you will incur the penalty of losing a single vote if you adopt this majority plank, because every other party has done the same.

No Voice Against Americanism Plank. No voice was raised against the vigorous declarations of the Americanism plank, but at one time it looked as if the suffrage plank had been forced upon Senator Walsh of Montana had told the convention that President Wilson himself considered it vital to party success, however, it was voted into the platform by a ballot of 883 1/2 to 181 1/2. The entire platform then was adopted without roll call.

Suffrage Plank as Adopted. As it went into the platform the suffrage plank stands: "We favor the extension of the franchise to women on the same terms as to men."

The women suffrage leaders considered it a much more favorable declaration than they got from the republican convention at Chicago; they threw all their force behind it and won the support of the administration leaders, who were found fighting for them when the danger threatened.

Platform Makers Exhausted. Haggard and worn from an all-night session, the platform makers were not ready with their report until after noon, when Senator Stone, speaker of the convention, took the floor for more than thirty hours, took the speaker's stand and, explaining that he was too tired to read the document, said that he would read the closing words of his plea for the administration plank, except a change of sentence. The "White House" came to the suffragists as the wave of cool, refreshing air that poured down into the hall.

Platform Adopted as Written. There were renewed cries of "Vote!" As the clerks called the roll of states the votes toppled into the collection box. The platform was adopted by a vote of 883 1/2 to 181 1/2. The platform was adopted as written, except a change of sentence. The "White House" came to the suffragists as the wave of cool, refreshing air that poured down into the hall.

Thunder Storm Added to the Din. While the fight had been going on, a thunder storm burst and when the roll was called the rain was pouring down. The storm reached its climax at the close of the session, and the clatter caused by the rain on the roof, almost drowned out the speakers. The storm cleared just as Senator Walsh was speaking. The suffragists were not to be deterred by the storm. The platform was adopted as written, except a change of sentence. The "White House" came to the suffragists as the wave of cool, refreshing air that poured down into the hall.

Plans for a Vigorous Democratic Campaign. To Take Definite Shape After Conference of President Wilson and Vice President Marshall.

Washington, June 16.—Plans for the vigorous democratic campaign that will be directed from the White House will begin to take definite shape after President Wilson has conferred with Vice President Marshall, the new chairman of the national committee, and other party leaders, probably next week. The president, it was said today, probably would receive formal nomination at the Ansonia hotel, at Shadow Lawn, N. J.

Hundreds of congratulatory messages reached the White House today from all parts of the country. The first to come was from Vice President Marshall at Indianapolis. The president, it was said today, probably would receive formal nomination at the Ansonia hotel, at Shadow Lawn, N. J.
